Dooar's School Offers “Pitha & Payesh” to its Students on Poush Sankranti

By Atish Sen (TNI Banarhat)

Webdesk, TNI Banarhat, 15th January, 2016: Today a special event happened at Banarhat High School. The school was open on Pous Sankranti day also. However, it may not be a very enjoying information for the students but what is enjoying is that all the students of the school and the teachers today enjoyed an unexpected party of Sankranti Pitha and Payesh. When entire Bengal and Assam is celebrating Poush Sankranti, most of the BPL families have to go half fed courtesy the economic uncertainty going on in this tea belt. The school management today took the initiative to offer the Pitha and Payesh to all the students of the school. The students also had their unbounded happiness after receiving the unexpected gift. While talking to TNI, a teacher of the school Mr. Satyabrata Sengupta said that “We wanted to go beyond the routine corridors and thus offered this event to bring the smile in the faces of the students”. The Head Master Mr. Sukalyan Bhattacharya said “I am just the executing authority of this program everything has been done by the school management committee and the teachers. In the future, we also have some programs for the laborers of the closed tea gardens of Dooars”. In this connection, he also pointed out that the Mid Day meal kitchen is still in an unfinished condition.

Mahananda Aarti Performed in Siliguri for Clean Mahananda

Rita Das (TNI)

Webdesk, TNI Siliguri, 14th January, 2016: In an attempt to make the Mahananda Clean a local social association called 'Bihari Yuva Chetna Manch' have organized a Nadi Pujan Program in the Lal Mohan Moulik Ghat of Mahananda River in Siliguri led by the president of the organization Mr. Mithilesh Mishra. According to the association, this program will continue in every Purnima tithi. In this program a River Puja was performed along with this in the evening a Mahananda Aarti was also performed by the members in line with the Ganga Aarti performed in Varanasi and Hooghly. The members also have talked with the temple priest to support their cause. Interestingly, there were various projects taken up like Mahananda Action Plan by the Government but the fate of Mahananda remains in the same corridors and day by day the pollution, siltation, encroachment has increased leading to the dangerous eroding of the ecological balance of the place along with Siliguri city.

HUNDREDS OF TORTOISE DIE IN MAYURAKSHI RIVER SOON AFTER RELEASE

By Kalyan Kumar (TNI Ranchi)

Webdesk, TNI Ranchi, 15th January, 2016: A huge haul of smuggled tortoises were found dead in Mayurakshi river today just after the release by the Forest Department. Internal sources say that the death toll would be in hundreds. According to the forest department, Dumka Police on 11th January had seized a truck with around 3500 smuggled tortoises heading towards West Bengal from UP. Soon after the recovery the tortoise were found in an inhospitable condition and thus they were immediately released at Mayurakshi River, however, the tortoises could not bear the earlier stress and had died. A departmental investigation had already started to access the cause of the death of such a large quantity of tortoises.

Villages of Falakata Set to Boycott Elections in Demand of Mujhna Bridge

By Arunangshu (TNI Falakata)

Webdesk, TNI Falakata, 14th January, 2016: Villagers of Falakata's West Deogaon Village started their agitation of Vote boycott against the authority to protest the non-progress of the initiative to start the construction of a concrete bridge over Mujhna River at Niasha Ghat. The demand of the bridge is very long standing. The villagers are facing enough problem of traversing an extra distance of 10 kms due to the absence of the bridge here. During the winter, a makeshift arrangement is made with bamboo but it's not possible during the rainy season. According to the villagers, the political leader and ministers have given blank assurance of constructing a bridge before every election. Now the villagers have decided to boycott the upcoming assembly election. However, from the political sources, it's learnt that more than one political party has decided to take this issue in these upcoming assembly elections. Earlier Borodoba Village of Falakata also has decided to boycott elections with the similar reason.

TNI News Service (TNS)

Webdesk, TNI Siliguri, 15th October, 2015: In a surprising and alarming incident in Siliguri a youth lost, at least, Rs. 9000/- in the process of returning a damaged product to a Gurgaon-based Online store. The youth, himself a computer professional didn't suspect any unnatural move by the hackers of his bank account and he lost his money without a hint of getting duped. Such was the preparation of the hackers. The youth a resident of Bidya Chakra Colony of Ward No. 44, Siliguri bought a garment from an online garment selling site in COD payment system. After he received the consignment he found some discrepancy in the product. So he opted to return the product and also intimidated the company by mail. The next day he received a call from an unknown number by a male voice, where the person claimed himself customer attendant of the site. The person wanted the Bank Account Number and also the ATM card number from the youth by saying that the company will refund the money in the concerned account. The youth readily gave the Bank account number and also the ATM Card number. To his surprise within a split second Rs. 4500/- was deducted from his bank while the youth was talking to the person on the phone. The youth enquired about the deduction. The attendant on the phone avoided and disconnected the call. To the surprise of the youth again Rs. 4500/- was deducted from his account. Sniffing problem, the youth immediately called his bank and blocked his card. Later, a complaint was filed by the youth giving all the details to the Siliguri Cyber Crime Police Station. Currently, the case is under investigation.
